Fearrey wins Conservative nod

Dysart et al Reeve Murray Fearrey has defeated three other candidates to capture the Progressive Conservative nomination for the May 2 provincial election. Fearrey's second ballot win came at the party's convention Saturday at I. E. Weldon Secondary School in Lindsay.

While the Dysart reeve was believed to be a strong candidate going into the nomination, many observers were surprised by his first place finish in the opening ballot of the elimination. With a clear lead of 85 votes over his nearest rival, Dave Murray of Bobcaygeon, Fearrey turned in a strong performance leading up to the second ballot victory.

The win for the Haliburton Reeve also surprised observers, since he had only declared his intention to seek the nomination two weeks before the convention. On the other hand, Larry McKnight, a Minden businessman, had announced his intentions last autumn and had been campaigning steadily ever since.

McKnight was eliminated on the first ballot trailing his nearest rival by 51 votes.

Dave Murray, who had been the Progressive Conservative candidate in the last provincial election, placed second on the first ballot with Don McCumber, the reeve of Emily Township in Victoria County, placed third.

On the second ballot,

Dave Murray gained slightly in vote total while McCumber lost support. The main section of McKnight supporters appeared to have transferred their allegiance to Fearrey, ensuring the Haliburton County resident the win. As the McKnight voters moved to the ballot boxes for the second vote, many could be seen placing Fearrey buttons on their lapels.

A large crowd of Progressive Conservative supporters from throughout the riding were in attendance for the nomination meeting. According to the credentials committee, there were 943 eligible voters in attendance for the first ballot. The size of the crowd in the auditorium at the high school was over 1200 as alternate delegates, PCs without official convention status, and observers crowded into the hall.

Each of the candidates was provided with a specified amount of time for nomination speeches, a demonstration by supporters and a speech by the candidate himself.

Fearrey, who was nominated by Betty Hickson of Victoria County and seconded by Sinc Nesbitt of Minden, told the gathering that he felt the riding could be won again by the Progressive Conservatives. "We can rebuild and rekindle the spirit of this riding," he told the gathering.

Fearrey then outlined some of his major campaign policies. He suggested that a series of six contact persons should be established throughout the riding to assist in keeping him informed and in helping residents in solving problems. He said he would support the expansion of Community College services in the riding, especially in the area of retraining for the unemployed.

While acknowledging that his experience in the area of agriculture was limited, he said he was "willing to learn". He said it was important to recognize the importance of agriculture to this region and that he would work to re-establish the balance between a farmer's cost of production and the price he receives for his products.

The candidate said he would attempt to secure the easing of provincial taxes on food and liquor to encourage growth in the tourism sector. He suggested that the abandoned rail line between Lindsay and Haliburton

Cautious approval given new store

A proposal to construct a home improvement centre on Peck Street in Minden has been agreed to in principle by Anson, Hindon and Minden Council.

Following a lengthy discussion council agreed to the proposal at their regular meeting on Thursday, March 28. The proposed outlet was also the subject of discussion at the March 14 meeting of Council.

At that meeting Council decided that under comprehensive zoning bylaw 14-67 the proposed establishment met the definition of a retail store and not a lumber yard as suggested in a report from the planning advisory committee.

John Pentney Jr. attended Thursday's meeting to file a formal application to construct the home improvement centre and to obtain clarification of council's position before he applied for a building permit.

Pentney said that the centre would be a 40 foot by 120 foot, single story building that would be used as a showroom and storage area, and that there would be no outside storage of materials. Clerk-Treasurer, Bev Millar, was asked by Council to read a letter from the municipal solicitor, Frazer Rogers, regarding the application.

In his letter the solicitor noted that the property in question is zoned General Commercial A and that a retail store would conform to the zoning, but he cautioned that the zoning bylaw 14-67 does not define the term "retail".

He said that council would have to make a decision on the interpretation of the term "retail store". He suggested that Council should stipulate that the applicant be responsible for any costs that arise if there are any objections from the public.

Councillor Gary Kenney expressed concern that the current zoning bylaw lacks proper definition and that because the township is offering no guarantee that Council's definition is correct, the onus to defend Council's decision is passed to the public.

He disagreed with the disclaimer that the applicant should be responsible for the costs of defending council's interpretation. "Anything that was passed under bylaw 14-67 is subject to interpretation and intent, but the buck has to stop somewhere," he said, adding, "we should not expect people to defend our interpretation of the bylaw."

Acting Reeve Ed Pergolas agreed that the existing zoning bylaw is vague but pointed out that the proposed comprehensive zoning bylaw will better clarify terms.

When asked by Pentney if the business could be shut down by complaints Pergolas responded that the costs of launching such an objection would be prohibitive. He added that there have been no official complaints to date although there have been a few verbal complaints.

Pergolas advised council not to disregard the advice of the municipal solicitor regarding the disclaimer.

Council passed a resolution agreeing in principle to the proposal to construct the home improvement centre provided that all provisions of bylaw 14-67 and the Ontario Building Code are complied with.

Pergolas told council that he was registering a nay vote "not because of the bylaw but because it contradicts our lawyers recommendations."

Objection

Following the passing of the resolution Brian Adamson presented a letter of objection on behalf of Nancy Adamson regarding the proposed construction.

Adamson expressed surprise that Council had passed the resolution stating that it was his understanding that the proposal would not be considered at that meeting. He said in his opinion the business would not conform to the zoning, arguing that even if all materials are stored inside the building the business will still essentially be a lumber yard, because of the stock that will be available.

Councillor Pat Burk responded, "I think you are

by Hilde Lange

It has been more than 4 1/2 years since the president of a California-based company, American Diversified, Tech Division, made a trip to Washington, D.C. with a Hastings, Nebraska attorney. The result of that trip was the official opening in February, of a $27 million ethanol plant east of Hastings.

This is the state's first large ethanol plant and although it is about 40 miles from Minden, it is expected to have a positive effect on agriculture for the entire area. The plant will use about 4 million bushels of grain annually to produce 10 million gallons of fuel grade ethanol and about 37,000 tons each of two by-products, liquid carbon dioxide and distillers dried grain solids, a high-protein livestock feed supplement.

The plant plans to buy most of the grain locally to avoid transportation costs, but four or five surrounding states are considered potential markets.

Ethanol is used primarily as an octane enhancer in gasoline, but also can be used in a variety of other chemical and household products. The plant will produce enough ethanol to supply half of the gasohol (90% unleaded gasoline and 10% ethanol), that is consumed in the state of Nebraska.

Nationally, consumption of gasohol, also known as super unleaded with ethanol, has increased in the past five years from 400 million gallons to 4 billion gallons. It is hoped that ethanol production will represent a step toward energy independence for the United States.

Between the purchase of raw materials and services and the sale of products, the plant will put about $45 million per year into the local economy and will employ about 50 people.

A busload of dignitaries toured the ethanol plant after a ribbon-cutting ceremony. The president of American Diversified's Tech Division thanked the congressional delegation for its support for the federal loan guarantees that enabled the plant to be built.

Any news that sounds like it could bring a positive note to the agricultural economy is welcome. Various farm groups have arranged meetings and seminars which include "stress management" for farmers. Stress was once considered the exclusive problem of big city businessmen, but now is known to be a major problem in rural areas as well.

Agriculture is the principal industry in Nebraska, just as automobiles is the principal industry in Detroit. Therefore, a new plant, based on the use of agricultural commodities is a most welcome addition to our area.

C of C manager resigns position

The Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce is once again without a manager.

Vice President of the Chamber, Shawn Hagerman, announced last Wednesday that manager Emily Skinner has resigned the post. She submitted her resignation to the Chamber's board of directors March 14 and was effective immediately. However, the board did not meet until March 26 to formally accept the resignation.

According to the press release announcing the loss of the manager, Skinner resigned because of ill health. "Emily has suffered ill health over the past four months and was hospitalized four times since November," the press release stated. It was noted that the decision to resign was prompted by a recommendation of her doctor.

"Mrs. Skinner expressed her deep regret at having to leave the Chamber manager's job and has offered to be available for advice and consultation until a new manager is appointed to maintain the continuity of Chamber activity," the announcement said.

The board of directors accepted the resignation "with regret", with the members expressing their satisfaction with the job Mrs. Skinner had done for the county-wide organization.

The search will begin immediately for a replacement.

Liberal incumbent candidate in the May 2 provincial election, John Eakins visited Minden Monday. Despite the blustery winter weather, the candidate braved the elements to talk with Main Street pedestrian. Man dies in fire accident

One man is dead and another seriously injured following a car accident early Friday morning on County Road 14 four kilometres south of Eagle Lake.

Dead is 49 year old James Ridgewell, a resident of Eagle Lake. The injured man, suffering from extensive burns and internal injuries is 56 year old Erick Witzke of Haliburton.

According to police, Ridgewell was northbound on the county road when his vehicle slid sideways while rounding a curve. The vehicle slid into the path of a car driven by Witzke. The Ridgewell vehicle was struck broadside with the force of the impact splitting the car in half. Ridgewell was thrown from the car and died at the scene.

The Witzke car burst into flames upon impact. A third vehicle, driven by 32 year old Brian Coppin of Norland was also travelling north. After swerving to avoid the damaged vehicles and ending up in the ditch, Coppin ran to the burning car. Using his coat as a shield against the heat of the flames, he managed to pull the injured man from the burning vehicle.

Witzke was taken to Haliburton Hospital and transferred to Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto where he is listed in serious condition.

The accident was investigated by Constable Ken Wesley.

In a second accident, related to the collision near Eagle Lake, Dr. Dennis Chong, 25, was rushing to the Haliburton Hospital in response to the emergency call, when his car slid off Highway 121 on the Dover

Spring Hill. The doctor was able to run down the hill where he caught up with the ambulance, eventually accompanying the injured man to Toronto.

The second accident was investigated by Constable Al Pumputus.

splitting hairs. To me 'yard' is the key word," adding that she saw nothing wrong with the proposed business.

When asked what aspect of the proposal he found objectionable, Adamson replied that he was concerned with the affects on the neighbourhood of noise from the building and of increased traffic volume. He predicted that delivery trucks would be using Anson Street, which he described as "not up to par".

Adamson added that there would be increased automobile traffic along Anson Street and that there would be parking problems. Adamson also expressed concerns over the storage of material outside the building.

Councillor Kenney responded that there would be no outside storage and that commercial vehicles could be prohibited from using Anson Street.

The Clerk-Treasurer then read the letter from Nancy Adamson. Mrs. Adamson stated that the issue was whether the business would be a retail store. "A rose is a rose is a rose... A lumber yard is a lumber yard is a lumber yard," she wrote.

Adamson suggested that Council should, "leave this parcel to retailers who fit in with the downtown," adding that the business would be a "quasi retail" and that council members should think before they "industrialize the tourist area of the core."

Adamson also suggested that the increased traffic volume would necessitate the resurfacing of Anson and Peck Streets and the installation of stop lights at the intersection of the Main Street and Peck Street. In conclusion, Brian Adamson told council that if the proposed business was simply an "extension of a hardware store that is one thing, but where does it go from there?"

He reiterated his wife's concerns that major traffic problems will be created at the corner of Peck and Main Street particularly in the summer.

Acting Reeve Ed Pergolas replied that the municipality has for some time been considering improvements to the Peck Street area and that the concerns regarding noise, traffic and outside storage would be dealt with under the terms of the building permit.

Village should be retained by the province with a number of potential uses in mind, including recreational and possibly as a corridor for a natural gas pipeline to serve adjacent communities.

Fearrey said he would work to support programs which help the aged and families. He also emphasized the need for special consideration by the province for the problems of municipalities.

"With new initiatives and a common sense approach, I am confident we can win May 2," the candidate told the audience.

Following the final ballot, Fearrey told the crowd he would require the support of everyone in the room and others to win the election. He asked for their continued support on the road to the May 2 vote.

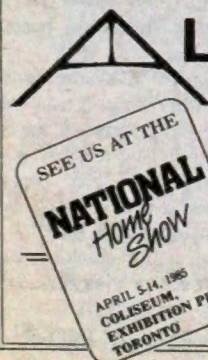

The runner-up in the voting, Dave Murray, congratulated the successful candidate and called on all members of the party to work together as a team.

Convention observations

Some observations from the March 30 Victoria - Haliburton Progressive Conservative nominating convention.

Everyone likes John Eakins, including the PCs who would like to see him out of a job. A number of speakers Saturday, including the guest speaker, Energy Minister George Ashe and several contenders, had words of praise for the incumbent Liberal. The speakers admitted to the man's personal popularity in and out of the riding and could not bring themselves to say a harsh word about "Mr. Nice Guy" (a quote from George Ashe). Judging by the comments, the thrust of the PC campaign will be to return the riding to the Conservative fold rather than to defeat Mr. Eakins.

Who was just as happy or happier than Murray Fearrey about his victory? Longtime Conservative and Haliburton County politician Sinc Nesbitt could barely contain himself as the Fearrey victory became evident. He led the placard waving Fearrey supporters, even dancing a little jig, when the numbers were announced.

Don McCumber, the man nobody from Haliburton County seems to know, could prove to be a strong candidate in future elections. McCumber is articulate, his speech was thoughtful and his manner gracious. With a little more exposure and a higher profile he could be the man to take over for Bill Scott federally, or an excellent candidate in some provincial race in the future.

The one obvious void at the convention was the lack of a candidate from the riding's greatest population concentration, Lindsay. All the rural areas, Minden, Haliburton, Fenelon Falls/Bobcaygeon and Omeme were represented, but not one from the city.

One thing about Conservatives, they sure know how to vote. The speed with which they processed the delegates and counted the ballots was amazing. Considering the number of delegates and the riding association's relative inexperience at this sort of thing, it was a credit to their organization how well it came off. The federal and provincial executives could take a lesson from them.

The surprise of the day had to be Murray Fearrey's first place finish on the first ballot. While Fearrey has had many years to cultivate contacts throughout both counties, and these would have served him well on Saturday, the fact he only declared his intentions two weeks prior to the meeting was considered by many to have been a liability to his success. It, in fact, didn't seem to have hurt his effort at all.

Editor:

I am writing in regard to your article describing the Reeve of Lutterworth's tirade concerning the long suffering Chamber of Commerce!

The statement reflecting on the competence of the manager is a gross distortion of fact! It is the first time in my experience of County Council, that the manager of the Chamber has not had an outside commitment! The annual statement rendered by the manager was a most concise brief and clear statement.

Reeve Gambell's suggestion of disbandment and reform, when questioned, gave no logical answer!

When the Chamber of Commerce was presented as a subject for discussion, at the Council meeting January 16, 1985, Reeve Gambell was absent. This would have been a more appropriate time to have raised objections.

However the adverse comments had no effect on the passage of the budget!!

Glynne Lewis,
Minden.

P.S. Mrs. Skinner's recent resignation is regretted but quite understandable!!

Everytime I turn the radio or TV on, or look at the paper, all I hear and read about are the starving people of Ethiopia. It gets me so mad. Why are we being asked to give to these people anyway? Haven't we got enough starving and homeless people in Canada and Ontario to look after?

What about all our native Indian people who are starving on welfare and living in dumps? I don't see anything being done to help these true Canadians. It's really not fair, they were here first. There are so many people in Canada alone and Ontario who are living on welfare and "Hell, we know you don't get much on that."

You don't see too much being done to help the homeless and hungry in Canada do you? I'll bet the big shots in the government aren't doing without. It's just a struggle to put food on the table today and also to put clothes on your family. This country is really going to the pits.

So, instead of asking Canadians to support the Ethiopia people, why doesn't our good government send them some birth control pills to help slow the birth rate down over there. I believe that Canadians should look after their own people first and let the other countries look after their own. You know the old saying, "Charity starts at home first."

As far as I am concerned, the government is letting too many foreigners into our country. So let's hope our so called government gets its heads together and starts taking care of the poor Canadians and forgetting the so called starving people overseas. I'll bet there's lots of people right here in Minden starving and doing without!

Congratulations to Mr. Fearrey and continued success with the campaign at hand. I hope, however, he and other PC riding hopefuls will relay their concerns about the latest development for an all party debate.

Premier Miller should reconsider. He has a responsibility to debate the other two party leaders and his reticence can only be interpreted as an uneasy concession to the advice of his political strategists. They might rightly point out that, given the latest poll results, he stands to gain very little from a debate while allowing his opposition free opportunity to increase their credibility with voters.

In this age of consensus politics no front runner likes to toy with a lead on prime time TV and chance losing support by getting cornered on the thorny issues of the day or projecting an electronic image that is at odds with what is carefully prescribed by his/her media consultants. However, is there not more at stake here than political strategy? What about the need of the electorate to have reason-

Federation of Ontario Naturalists

"Couquere!" Return of the cocky marsh-bosses transforms eerie silence into a jangle of sound and sight. They chortle and screech, race from perch to perch, and boldly bait any challenger to "just try!" to take over their 'turf'.

Red-winged blackbirds might well be described as the epitome of chauvinism. The differences in both colour behaviour are as dramatic as they are important to the bird's stupendous success.

The male flashes about in his sleek black coat, replete with gaudy red-and-yellow epaulettes. Cockily, he fluffs and poses - it seems that inflated chests, padded jackets and stretched - tall - stands aren't confined, at all, to people. Flicking tail, he shrieks to challenging males, courting females and threats, alike.

The female, by contrast, is muted. Softly patterned, she's a collection of streaks - brown - and - black above, and brown - and - black on white below. Rather quiet, she is as recessive as the male is cocky. And just as the male is superbly adapted as a show - off, to stake territory and attract a mate - the female disappears into the marsh scene. As inconspicuous as a branch or mat of dry leaves, she can invisibly tend their vulnerable nest.

Redwings have spent the winter 'jammed' together in the marshes, meadows and roosts of the southern U.S. and Caribbean Islands, feeding and patiently awaiting spring's cue. Triggered at last by lengthening photoperiod, they began their northward pilgrimage.

Males race out ahead, to reclaim the still-frozen marshes abandoned to last winter's onslaught. Glistening in the sun, they vie for the dominant perches. Ritualistically, they posture, bob and flick. Bodies erect, heads high, they shriek. Territorial dominance established, they race about, defining their 'turf'.

Males begin arriving in southern Ontario about the first week of March, and reconquer the countryside as a steadily-moving wave. When to move is always a difficult judgement call. Too early, and they may be trapped by late-winter's killer storms. Too late, and the prime meeting territories will be taken. Unlike people, redwings can't simply pack more territories into the same breeding marshes.

By the time the females begin arriving, 3 to 4 weeks later, the ponds and marshes are open and territories well - defined. The females immediately set to work, choosing the "best" - the cockiest and gaudiest - of the males available. The

Canada Day funding

-by Bill Scott, MP-

Our national holiday comes but once a year. It is a time to celebrate our nation and our achievements, both individually and together as Canadians.

A new Canada Day tradition is evolving in our country. That tradition is to celebrate our national holiday through special community events. These events are as wide-ranging and varied as the kinds of groups which sponsor them. What is important is that these celebrations commemorate the spirit of our nation, its people and their accomplishments.

This year, in honour of International Youth Year, Canada Day celebrations will focus on a "Salute to Canadian Youth", celebrating the achievements and potential of young Canadians.

If you would like to organize a community event to celebrate July 1, "seed money" grants are available from the Canada Day program sponsored by the Department of Secretary of State. These funds are not for 100% funding of your event, and you will have to show widespread community support for your projects from other sources such as local businesses and local government.

The Canada Day program is also sponsoring a special Canada Day Youth Award for community ceremonies honouring young Canadians. This award is available to community groups who would like to honour a youth in their community at a Canada Day ceremony.

For more information and application forms for these programs, contact the Ontario Canada Day Committee at 25 St. Clair Avenue East, Toronto, Ontario, M4T 1M2 (416) 966-8682 (collect). A limited number of application forms are also available at my constituency office.

Please note that applications must be submitted to the Ontario Canada Day Committee, at the above address, before May 10, 1985. Applications received after May 10 will not be guaranteed consideration.

able access to the policies and opinions of their potential leaders before they are elected?

Premier Miller has never in the past been the type of politician to shy from a vigorous presentation of his political views. He owes it to us all to publicly debate the other leaders sometime during this campaign and give insight to his priorities for the next four years. There are too many issues that need to be aired, too many options that must be considered.

At the county and municipal level, for instance, we are faced with rapidly deteriorating roads and equally diminishing provincial assistance. Important programs to assist children and the elderly are overextended and underfunded. Chronic care requirements have spilled over into regular hospital routine to the detriment of both. Acid rain still threatens Ontario's recreation heartland.

If Premier Miller does not debate, he may be considered a shrewd strategist and media manipulator, but will he gain respect as a leader that is sensitive to common concerns? Increasingly the politics of our time seem relegated to less and less incisive debate and yearly are more concealed by the accumulating layers of studio greasepaint. As that emphasis for image gains ground on realistic political contribution we risk some day being left with nothing but pure mime.

Blairhampton.

PCs choose Fearrey

Only one candidate could win, and each of the four seeking the Victoria-Haliburton Progressive Conservative Party's nomination knew that on Saturday. The four presented their platforms, attempted to fill the hall with the noise and excitement of the national conventions, and then waited nervously for the delegates to make their selection.

Murray Fearrey, upper right, won on the second ballot. He is seen with his wife Darlene as he makes his victory speech. Larry McKnight, lower right, was the first to be eliminated from the contest. Led by a bevy of supporters, he marches into the hall with his wife Cheryl. Emily Township Reeve Don McCumber, lower left, flashes a grin to the audience as he mounts the stage to present his platform to the delegates. Dave Murray, upper left, former PC candidate, strikes a serious pose as he addresses the audience Saturday.

marshes reverberate as dozens, or hundreds, of males put on their best performance.

Mates chosen, each couple sets immediately to work, weaving a delicate 3" basket of dried grasses. It's a fever pace, for within weeks, 4 to 5 cream-coloured eggs will make their appearance.

Again, the couple's roles diverge. The inconspicuous, quiet female takes sole responsibility for the 10 to 12 day incubation; she blends perfectly into the setting, minimizing risk of giving away the nest's location, or of drawing predators. The gaudy male, meanwhile, flits about, boldly defending the territory, drawing off predators and gathering the food necessary for both he and his mate.

The eggs hatch quickly, ravenously consuming parental offerings of caterpillars, grasshoppers and myriad other insects. Doggedly, the parents race to and fro. From dawn till dusk, they gather and feed, over and over, generating tomorrow's still - bigger appetites.

Within weeks, the first brood will be off, making way for the couple to mate, relay, and repeat the ritual yet again.

By fall, cued yet again by photoperiod - this time shortening days - they'll congregate and begin to make their way south. Gaudy males. Mute females. And the whole spectrum of "in-between" progeny, still wearing less-conspicuous juvenile plumage. All on their way south to await next spring's cue.

Haliburton Bantams one game away from Ontario title

- submitted -

The O.M.H.A. Haliburton Bantams played their third game of the Ontario Championships against Teeswater last Saturday and won 7 - 6.

There were 450 fans to welcome the Huskies onto the ice last Saturday and despite a rousing ovation the home town was behind by a goal after only 33 seconds. The Teeswater lead was short lived, however, as Haliburton tied it up 34 seconds later on a goal by Jeff Francis assisted by Erin Nicholls and Drew Mitchell. Ron Perrin put the Huskies ahead at 10:50 of the first period assisted by Jeff Francis.

Teeswater scored 2 more in a row before Erin Nicholls tied it up again with a fine solo effort with 1:22 left in the first period. Teeswater took the lead again with only 24 seconds remaining in the first and the score was 4 - 3 for Teeswater at the start of the second period.

The Huskies tied it again at 13:26 of the second period on a goal by Colin Hunter assisted by Erin Nicholls. Erin put the Huskies ahead at 9:54 assisted by Colin Hunter and Jeff Warburton. Jeff Francis widened the lead to two on a hard shot to the upper corner assisted by Erin Nicholls and Ron Perrin.

Teeswater scored 2 more before the period ended and the teams started the third period tied at 6 - 6.

Both teams got some excellent chances but due to close checking and good goaltending Haliburton scored the only goal of the period at 10:26. Drew Mitchell drifted a backhand shot past the Teeswater goalie after Erin Nicholls won the faceoff.

There were only 10 minor penalties called in the game and the fans were treated to some fast, exciting hockey.

On Sunday at the Haliburton arena the fourth game of the best of 7 was well attended again with approximately 440 people on hand. The hometown fans were not to be disappointed. Backed by goaltender Gavin McKnight, the Huskies combined some heavy hitting with a quick offensive pattern to overwhelm Teeswater 5 - 1 by the end of the second period.

Teeswater opened the scoring at 12:27 of the first period before Erin Nicholls tied it up on a pass from Scott Russell. Colin Hunter put the hometown ahead at 4:56 on a relay pass from Scott Russell and Jeff Warburton. Scott Russell recovering from a mediocre Saturday night game, scored 3 goals in a row with the first one being assisted by Erin Nicholls and the next two unassisted.

Teeswater scored at 7:21 of the third period before Erin Nicholls on a fine solo effort scored at 4:08 to give the Huskies a 6 - 2 lead. Teeswater scored again at 1:42 of the final period and the game ended at 6 - 3 for Haliburton.

Haliburton now leads the series 3 games to 1. The next game is in Haliburton Friday, April 5 at 8:00 p.m.

The Huskies could win the Ontario Championships this Friday with a victory and the support and enthusiasm are all pointing in that direction. See you at the Arena.

IT'S BETTER TO BE AT HOME

Ongoing medical care no longer has to mean an extended stay in hospital. Most people recover faster and feel better in the comfort of their own home.

Across Ontario, the Ministry of Health's Home Care Program can bring the health services you need right to your doorstep - services like visiting nurses, physio and other therapies, drugs, dressings and medical supplies, laboratory services. Homemaking and meals-on-wheels are purchased from local community services as needed.

There is no charge, if you qualify. To be eligible you must be under the medical supervision of a doctor, and need a professional health service that cannot be met on an outpatient basis.

Here's how it works. On the advice of your doctor, you may be admitted to the Program either from a hospital or from your home. A home care team, in consultation with your doctor, will provide the visiting service you need. Once you are well enough, you will be discharged from the program and referred to other community services as needed.

For more information on the Home Care Program and whether you qualify, please contact the area office nearest you:

Next game could be clincher for Juveniles

The Minden Monarch Juveniles are only one game away from capturing the Ontario "DD" Championship after winning the first two games of the finals over the weekend.

On Saturday, the Monarchs romped to a 8-2 win over Paisley in Minden. On Sunday the Monarchs overcame a three goal deficit on the way to a 6-4 win in Paisley.

Much of the credit for the victories has to go to "Boomer" Stamp who wracked up a total of 11 points in the two games.

A large enthusiastic crowd jammed Minden arena on Saturday for the opening game in the series and the supporters were not disappointed. The Monarchs jumped to an early lead scoring twice in the first three minutes of play.

After winning the face-off in the Paisley end, Scot Hamilton took a pass from Bernie Upton in the corner and fired a high shot into the net. Boomer Stamp picked up an assist on the play. Minden continued to press, repeatedly dumping the puck into the Paisley end and outthrusting the defence.

After taking a pass from Lennie Johnston and Chris Laporte, captain Jeff Howe fired the puck through a tangle of players in front of the Paisley net to score the Monarch's second goal.

With the teams playing four aside late in the first period, Jeff Howe drove a hard slapshot from the point. Lennie Johnston grabbed the rebound and flipped it high over the Paisley goalie to give the Monarchs a three goal lead.

With only 21 seconds remaining in the period Lennie took a cross pass from Boomer Stamp and scored on a long, soft shot from the edge of the faceoff circle. The Paisley netminder shook his head in disgust then pulled himself from the game.

Early in the second period Boomer Stamp fired a shot into the Paisley corner. Scot Hamilton beat the defense to the puck and relayed a pass to Barry Boice who scored on a quick wrist shot into the top corner.

The action slowed down for the rest of the period until Paisley scored their first goal with just over a minute remaining. Following the intermission, the pace of the game quickened again. After taking a pass from Jeff Howe and Barry Boice, Tim Wood scored the Monarchs sixth goal on a hard shot from the blueline. At the half way mark of the period Paisley scored their second goal on a two-on-one break.

Three minutes later Scot Hamilton took a pass from Boomer Stamp, skated in alone, and scored his second goal of the game.

With 5:54 remaining, and the Monarchs playing a man short, Boomer Stamp capped off the game, scoring unassisted after an end to end rush.

The game was relatively penalty free.

The visitors picked up eight minor penalties and the Monarchs were assessed only six minors.

Come from behind

In contrast to the opening game that was dominated by the Monarchs, the game in Paisley on Sunday was a see-saw battle that was only decided in the final minutes of the game.

The Monarchs were rusty after the long bus trip, and brief warmup and the aggressive play of the host team gave Paisley a 3-0 lead by the end of the first period.

But the Monarchs regrouped and, cheered on by a group of over 50 fans from Minden, the team tied the game with three quick goals at the end of the second period. With 4:46 remaining in the period

Lennie Johnston scored on a pass from Tim Wood and Boomer Stamp.

A minute and a half later Boomer Stamp scored an unassisted goal to narrow the lead. Then in the last minute of play Bernie Upton evened the score after taking a relay pass from Boomer Stamp and Barry Boice.

Four minutes into the third period the Monarchs went ahead for the first time when Boomer Stamp scored his second unassisted goal. With 5:53 remaining in the game, Paisley tied the score at 4 all. A minute later Barry Boice put the Monarchs ahead by one after taking a pass from Boomer Stamp.

Then with 2:10 remaining, Lennie Johnston scored his second goal of the game on a pass from Chris Laporte and who else but Boomer, to give Minden the 6-4 victory.

The second game of the series was a lot rougher than the first game played in Minden. Paisley picked up 33 minutes in penalties including a game misconduct to their first string goalie, Don Grant. The Monarchs were assessed 35 minutes including a game misconduct to Bernie Upton. Since both players received the game misconducts in the third period they will have to sit out the third game of the series.

The next game will be played at Minden arena on Sunday at 7 p.m. It could be the final game of the season.

If the Monarchs win, they will become the 1984-85 "DD" All-Ontario champs.

Former chamber now clothing depot

The old Council Chambers on Beech Lake in Stanhope Township has been transformed into a clothing depot as part of a volunteer program to assist needy families in Haliburton County.

Anyone wishing to donate clothing, blankets, or household articles can do so at the municipal office on North Shore Road during business hours.

The articles of clothing, etc., are then sorted and articles that are needed are stored in the old Council chambers. According to Councillor Ann Barker, "good used clothing is needed especially for children and teenagers."

She emphasised that the municipality is not trying to take over the role of the Salvation Army but instead is working along with the agency to provide assistance to needy families throughout the county.

Down, but not out, the Ingoldsby bridge lies half way into the channel after being cut free from the western abutment. The structure, which is being replaced by a wider bridge, was demolished Friday. A large backhoe, seen on the far shore, dragged the frame ashore as the steel girders were cut into pieces.

PeeWees end season with win

The Minden Tri-County Pee Wees have ended the season with a convincing 16 - 11 - 1 record. The team played its final game in Beaverton Sunday, defeating their hosts by a 9 - 2 margin.

Throughout the season the team played with less than a complete change of line, which meant that some players were forced to skate through an entire game. Despite this handicap, the team managed a credible record.

Playing with a small roster ensures that in a high scoring game such as that on Sunday, everyone makes it onto the score sheet. Derrick Moore led the Minden attack scoring four goals, one unassisted, and assisting on one other. Justin Gentle scored a pair of goals for the Monarchs and assisted on one other goal.

Other scorers included Jason Scarlett with a single and two assists, Mike Muli with one and one, and Stephen Schraeder with a single goal. Jarrett Gentle assisted on four goals while Jamie Walker also added an assist.

Netminders for the final game were Emlyn Rossowski and Joel Cox.

The team captured an early lead and never looked back, scoring two goals in the first period, one in the second and six in the final frame. It wasn't until the 8:14 mark of the third period that Beaverton managed to get onto the scoreboard.

Minden was assessed 20 minutes in penalties while the host club was given 16 minutes.

Sweet time at Frost Centre

Sunny skies and warm temperatures greeted visitors to the Frost Centre sugar bush demonstration Saturday. The annual open house attracted hundreds of visitors throughout the day. Following a hearty meal of sausages and pancakes, smothered in maple syrup, the guests were taken on a tour of the centre's sugar bush. Al Corlett, above, explains one the modern methods of collecting sap using a gravity feed system. A youngster and his father joined the many visitors who tasted the sweet results poured onto the snow.

Another Kirchesse record

A national milk production record has been set by a ten year old Jersey cow owned by Bud and Paula Kirchner, owners of a dairy farm near West Guilford.

Lueese, a registered Jersey, set the highest production record ever attained in the ten year and older class in the history of the breed throughout Canada.

Over a period of 300 days Lueese produced 16,000 lbs. of milk. The butterfat content of 992 lbs. (equivalent to 1200 lbs. of butter) was the second highest level ever recorded in the country.

The 4.9% protein content set an all-time Canadian record for all ages and according to Bud Kirchner may be the highest percentage content ever registered in North America.

The production figures were announced this week by the Canadian Jersey Association. In 1984 the association named the herd of 20 Jerseys owned by the Kirchners the top herd in Canada.

The herd had the highest average increase in production over the period of one year, setting an all-time Canadian record and also set the record for the highest percentage of butterfat and protein.

The production volume and nutritional quality of the milk produced by Lueese ranks her as the sixth best Jersey in Canadian history, a remarkable accomplishment considering her age.

Red Cross praised for community support

"The Minden area has been very supportive of the Red Cross in past years and I am glad to see that tradition continue."

Those comments were made by the president of the Minden Red Cross Society, Brian Adamson at the annual meeting on Wednesday, March 27 at the Minden Curling Club.

The annual meeting and supper was attended by members of the Minden Branch, guests from the Lindsay District, Earl Smith President of the Regional Branch, Ken Morely, Financial Resources Chairman for Ontario and guest speaker Jerry Ming a consultant with the Red Cross Youth Services Program in Toronto.

The president's remarks were made after it was announced that the Minden Branch had raised $1500 in the first two weeks of the 1985 fund raising campaign.

Ken Morely commended the members for their fund raising efforts and informed them that public response to the campaign has been very encouraging throughout the region. He said that the society hopes to be able to raise an additional $200,000 in Canada this year. "These additional funds will make a great difference in the delivery of our program," he said.

He drew attention to the overwhelming response to the African Relief Fund that is being co-ordinated by the Canadian Red Cross. "We didn't start the fund and had no intention of running it but we became involved and have received a great deal of support from across Canada," he said.

He told the members that the African Relief Fund has raised over $5,000,000 through the Red Cross and that this amount has been matched by the Canadian government to provide relief for the drought stricken areas in northern Africa.

Earl Smith spoke of the importance of the work of local volunteers to the society. "This is basically a volunteer organization. People in large cities forget that, unfortunately, but that is not the case here. We have a vibrant, very much alive, active branch in Minden."

If the members present at the meeting needed any encouragement to continue their volunteer efforts they received it from the guest speaker Jerry Ming.

In an address that was a combination stand up comedy routine, pep talk and historical lesson, Ming encouraged the members to "see the good in yourselves for if you do you can see it in the world around you." He emphasised the importance of caring for others and of trusting people.

He asked his audience to close their eyes and picture themselves standing in the middle of a field while all around people lie wounded and dying after a fierce battle. That was the situation a man named Henri Deunant found himself in, Ming said.

He explained that

Canadian Red Cross Society has continued to expand. "Last year 10,000 people in Canada were trained in first aid. For a banker standing in the middle of a field, that is good news," he said.

Ming also praised the work of the youth in our society and their concern for others as shown through their fund raising efforts.

"There is hope for this world. There is hope for you and me and there is a lot to be thankful for."

At the conclusion of his address, Ming received a warm ovation from the audience and was presented a framed batique from Jim Burton, former president of the Society who also served as the regional chairman.

LEAD meeting will select board

An important meeting of the Haliburton County LEAD Corporation is scheduled to take place April 11. The outcome of the meeting will determine the members of the corporation's board of directors.

The LEAD Corporation is a federally sponsored development program designed to funnel investment money into a particular area. A corporation, made up of local volunteers, is established to oversee the expenditure of the funds provided by the federal government.

According to the manager of the corporation, Andy Campbell, it is important that the corporation's board of directors be established as quickly as possible. He noted that the granting agency has set a deadline for formation of the board and that substantial funding for this area could be in jeopardy if the schedule is not followed.

A representative of the funding agency will be in attendance at the meeting to assist in explaining the program and in answering questions.

According to Campbell, volunteers will be required from throughout the county. "I would hope that those who are interested in seeing this program get off the ground and succeed in the county will be in attendance, next Thursday," he commented.

What do old woman's nurses see?

What do you see nurses? What do you see?
What are you thinking when you look at me.
A crabbit old woman, not very wise
Uncertain of habit, with far away eyes.
Who dribbles her food, and makes no reply
When you say in a loud voice, "I do wish you'd try."
Who seems not to notice the things that you do
And forever is losing a stocking - a shoe.
Who, unresisting or not, lets you do as you will
With bathing and feeding, the long day to fill.
Is that what you are thinking? Is that what you see?
Then open your eyes, nurse - you are not looking at me.
I'll tell you who I am as I sit here so still
As I rise at your bidding and eat at your will.
I'm a small child of ten, with a father and mother
Brothers and sisters who love one another.
A young girl of sixteen with wings on her feet
A bride soon at twenty, my heart gives a leap Remembering the vows that I promised to keep.
At twenty-five now I have young of my own
Who needs me to build a secure happy home
A woman of thirty, my young now grow fast
Bound to each other with ties that should last.
At forty my young sons now grown up have gone.
But my man stays beside me to see I don't mourn.
At fifty - once more babies play at my knee
Again we know children, my loved one and me.
Dark days are upon me, my husband is dead.
I look at the future, I shudder with dread.
For my young are all busy - rearing young of their own
And I think of the years and the love I have known
I'm an old woman now, and nature is cruel.
'Tis her jest to make old age look like a fool
The body it crumbles, grace and vigor depart
There is now a stone where I once had a heart.
But inside this old carcass a young girl still dwells
And now and again my battered heart swells.
I remember the joys, I remember the pain
And I'm loving and living life all over again.
I think of the years all too few gone too fast
And I accept the stark fact that nothing can last.
So open your eyes Nurse! Open and see
Not a crabby old woman - Look closer - see "Me".

of the regular games were Jean Corby, Joan Rivard and Lil Martin (last game). Door prize winner was Marg McAfee and Sherry Gilbert walked away with the lucky shirt.

senior league

by Bert Harrison

Dear readers. Don't you think these real nice sunny days the weather man has been giving, helps to make life really worth living and bless my heart, so much has been happening here, I really don't know where to start.

Friday afternoon we had a good time here. Ray Jenkins, the great piano player, was with us again. He and his wife came to visit his dear mother, and some times when Ray plays, I play the harmonica along with him.

A very busy weekend here, nearly everyone had someone here to call. We are so sorry that Mrs. Gilbank had a real bad fall, and is in hospital. After she had been with us just a few days. We hope it won't be too long until she will be back with us again.

A nice service in the chapel Sunday night. Not too many there. Herald Thompson read the lesson, Ruth played for the singing, also led in prayer. Then Rev. Burgess took his message from Luke, Chapter 22, leading up to the crucifixion.

Edna Cowan always seems to be a winner. Saturday her granddaughter came to take her out for a drive and then out to dinner. She just gets back when someone comes and takes her out again.

We welcome Donna Alten back waiting on the tables. She does a real good job, for she is young and able.

We have someone else back with us, we are glad to see. Olive Hamilton is back with us after surgery.

Tuesday morning no one came to take the church service so Doris took over - and did a good job, too. She played the music, Linda led the singing. Then Doris delivered us real interesting messages, and did a good job, too. Is there anything our girls can't do?

Tuesday afternoon we watched interesting movies. The Managed Forest, where they cut logs that are mature. The Kew Gardens, and Man and His Dog.

Wednesday morning, down at fun and fitness, playing bucket ball Lilie Hogg made the highest score of all.

On St. Patrick's Day, celebrations here at Hyland Crest. Annie Cox was voted as our special guest. Annie claimed more Irish descendants than any of the rest. She also guessed the closest or nearest weight of the Blarney Stone, and she also guessed how many potatoes, that were in the 50 lb. bag. Congratulations Annie, we would like to say, for you were the winner on St. Patrick's Day.

Tuesday night, Fred Ballard came to entertain. Fred plays fine organ music, and comes when it is his turn, to come again whether it be snow or rain.

Thursday afternoon the ladies from Maple Lake

(came down from Maple Lake) and brought a lovely lunch which was just fine. We also had a birthday party with a lovely birthday cake for those who had birthdays in the month of March. We thank you for coming, ladies, and giving us your time. We know most of the ladies that came down today. We got to know them when we lived up that way.

We see a pair of robins outside our window today, so spring can't be too far away.

We thank Murray King for coming to call the bingo numbers Thursday night. Some players didn't win a bingo. Others did alright. Congratulations to Arnie Wright, we would like to say, for she has a birthday this 30th of March day.

We are sorry to report that Edith Welch had a bad fall and is in hospital. We hope it won't be too long when she'll be back with us again.

Our entertainers came again on this 29th March day. Grace to lead us in a sing a long. Norma the music to play. Grace always has some humorous poems, sings some real interesting numbers and knows how to entertain. We always look forward for them to come again.

Now to all my dear readers who read my senior lines. We wish you all the very best at this glad Easter time.
